

ACT to Save Oregon's Last Great Places

The Nature Conservancy's AmeriCorps Conservation Team needs committed individuals to fill 13 positions in Oregon that will help protect important habitat through science and restoration work. Positions available in: Bend, Enterprise, Eugene, Medford, Klamath Falls, John Day and Portland.

Eliminate noxious weeds, work with volunteers, reduce fire fuels, collect scientific data and assist with important conservation work The Nature Conservancy conducts through AmeriCorps positions that run from Jan. 11 - Dec. 10, 2010. Monthly living stipend and education award provided through AmeriCorps. For more information log onto www.nature.org/careers and search careers in Oregon. Postings close on October 19th.