JOB SUMMARY:

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM), an agency within the US Department of the Interior, administers 264 million acres of America's public lands, located primarily in 12 Western States. BLM manages for wildlife, recreation, timber harvest, livestock grazing, mineral extraction and other public uses. It is our friendly and supportive culture that separates us from other Federal agencies. BLM is focused on supporting your career objectives and professional growth while encouraging a balance between your work life and personal life. For additional information about the BLM, please visit Our website.

The Eugene District manages several ecosystems ranging from coastal dunes to dense Douglas-fir, hemlock, and cedar forests. The wide variation in the lands managed by the District offers the perfect compromise between the urban parks in the cities and the high elevation recreation opportunities in the adjacent Willamette, Siuslaw, and Umpqua National Forests. More than 200,000 visitors a year come to the Eugene District to sightsee, hike, fish, swim, hunt, picnic, and pursue other recreational activities.
